

Dr Althea Davies
RELU/ESRC Research Fellow
School of Biological & Environmental Sciences
University of Stirling
Stirling FK9 4LA
Scotland UK
Tel. +44 (0)1786 467810
<http://www.sbes.stir.ac.uk/people/davies>

My research deals with environmental archaeology and palaeoecology, focusing on long-term ecological change and land-use history in upland environments. I am particularly interested in how socio-economic circumstances affect human responses to upland environmental change, and the implications of long-term (millennial-scale) and recent (medieval and historic) ecological and land-use history for upland management and conservation.