Tentative agenda of the III Northern Archaeological Congress' panels will be as follows:

1. Human activities in the Circumpolar area during Pleistocene and Holocene: changes in natural environment and subsistence systems;
2. Socio-cultural variability in antiquity: archaeological evidences and interpretations;
3. Art, sacral environment, and myth-ritual practices of the ancient Northerners;
4. Colonization of the North and cultural interactions during Middle Ages and Modern Time;
5. Archaeological heritage as a public resource: protection and use.

Organizing Committee would like to draw the III NAC participants' attention to changes in the panels' agenda (while maintaining the main topics announced earlier) and the dates when the Congress will be held. Accordingly the Organizing Committee has made a decision to extend the deadline for filing applications and abstracts till April 15, 2010.
